

Irina Fan

Head of Insurance Market Analysis
Swiss Re Institute

Irina Fan is the Head of Insurance Market Analysis at Swiss Re Institute, a research arm of Swiss Re.

Based in Zurich, Irina leads a team of researchers, providing thought leadership analysis on global insurance markets from ageing populations to cybercrime. This feeds into Swiss Re's sigma publications, which are considered as "must-read" for many. The proprietary models, data and unique expertise also enable enhanced and innovative insurance solutions -- the foundation for building resilience for societies.

Prior to joining Swiss Re, Irina worked as Senior Economist with Hang Seng Bank with published research reports and TV appearances regularly. Her views were quoted by various international as well as local media. Irina has a master degree in economics from the University of Hong Kong and a master degree in quantitative analysis for business from the City University of Hong Kong.

About Swiss Re

The Swiss Re Group is one of the world's leading providers of reinsurance, insurance and other forms of insurance-based risk transfer, working to make the world more resilient. It anticipates and manages risk – from natural catastrophes to climate change, from ageing populations to cybercrime. The aim of the Swiss Re Group is to enable society to thrive and progress, creating new opportunities and solutions for its clients. Headquartered in Zurich, Switzerland, where it was founded in 1863, the Swiss Re Group operates through a network of around 80 offices globally. It is organised into three Business Units, each with a distinct strategy and set of objectives contributing to the Group's overall mission.

About the Swiss Re Institute

Swiss Re Institute, the research arm of SwissRe, is the first port-of-call for cutting-edge, risk research that drives value-focused commercial application for the re/insurance industry. Our proprietary models, data and unique expertise enable our research and synthesis to go beyond the norm, reaching new conclusions where others don't. By applying these insights, we, our clients, investors, and partners are able to realise and benefit from enhanced solutions, transformative innovation, and better decision making. The knowledge we nurture and apply together is the foundation for sustainable growth, advancing societies and making the world more resilient.
