

Georgina Haddad
Claims Expert, Swiss Re Corporate Solutions

Georgie manages a portfolio of complex Directors' and Officers' and Professional Indemnity claims including class actions. Georgie has had extensive experience in managing various construction related claims. These include claims made pursuant to annual professional indemnity policies, design and construct, and project specific policies. Georgie has also previously had experience in handling crime claims, employment practices liability claims and management liability claims.

Georgie holds a Diploma in law and has previously worked in private practice as a lawyer acting on instructions from insurers of barristers, real estate agents, engineers, architects, local councils and financial brokers.